Application form / Application for participation

The design.Börse_Berlin brings together outstanding and extraordinary designs from Art Deco and Bauhaus to the trendy Midcentury Design of the last century and the latest designs of the present. The fair sees itself as an interface between dealers, gallery owners, collectors, museums, young talented designers, the press and the general public interested in design. The aim is to initiate contacts, business and sales in a suitably attractive setting and to continue the event with commitment as a fixed design event held once a year.

The application for participation is made by submitting the registration form. Please fill it out, sign it and send it to the following address by mail, e-mail or fax:
